1	In response to feedback and in alignment with industry needs, there is a proposal to introduce a Master's Degree Program in Commerce (M.Com). This program aims to provide advanced knowledge and specialized skills in various aspects of commerce, including finance, accounting, and business management. By offering this degree, we seek to enhance academic and professional opportunities for students, ensuring they are well-prepared for leadership roles and advanced career paths within the field of commerce.	In response to the suggestion for a Master's Degree Program in Commerce (M.Com), we are pleased to announce that the program was successfully introduced starting from July 2021. This advanced degree is designed to provide students with in-depth knowledge and specialized expertise in key areas of commerce, including finance, accounting, and business management. The introduction of the M.Com program reflects our commitment to enhancing academic and professional opportunities for our students, equipping them with the skills necessary for leadership roles and advanced career paths in the field of |		commerce.

2	A suggestion received from students is to reduce the credits for certain courses in order to lower their overall academic burden. This adjustment would help manage the workload more effectively, enabling students to focus more thoroughly on their coursework and improve their learning experience.	The suggestion to reduce the credits for certain courses in order to alleviate the academic burden on students will be carefully considered by the relevant authorities. We recognize the importance of managing workload effectively to enhance the overall learning experience. The authorities will review the proposal in detail and assess its potential impact on student performance and academic balance. Any necessary adjustments will be made to ensure that the academic environment remains supportive and conducive to student success
